Report:

Jamia institute of engineering and management studies Akkalkuwa celebrating World Tribal Day on August 9th 2023. The day serves as a reminder of the rich cultural heritage, traditions, and customs of indigenous tribes, as well as the challenges they face.

Tribal communities have a unique way of life that is often tied to the land, nature, and ancestral practices. They have their own languages, belief systems, and social structures that have been passed down through generations.

On World Tribal Day, Dr. sayed kamaludin give the brief information to raise awareness about the importance of preserving and respecting tribal cultures. This includes cultural performances, traditional ceremonies, art exhibitions, and discussions on the rights and issues facing indigenous peoples.

In conclusion, World Tribal Day is an important occasion to honor and recognize the contributions of tribal communities to our world. It is a time to celebrate diversity, promote cultural understanding, and advocate for the rights of indigenous peoples.
